Philip L. Weaver and William N. Armstrong were granted complete power of attorney by Mrs. Emilie D'Herblay in 1901 and this power was made of public record yesterday. It appears that the power was not to be filed until the death of Colonel Norris and action was begun to collect the face of the two notes for $16,000 alleged to have been given to the New York woman by Norris.

The Hawaiian Engineering Association will hold its next regular meeting on Thursday, August 11, at 8 p. m. The speaker, Major Winslow, will favor the Association with a paper of great local interest, which will be descriptive of the Fortification Work here in Hawaii, and the Foundation Difficulties encountered. Major Winslow has collected much data and many interesting photos during construction, which will be reproduced on the lantern screen. Come and let your friends learn how they do things on our Army Fortifications.

Highest Type of Hat and Man

The above is an exact reproduction of President Roosevelt's hat with his Knox Hat in it as he waved Goodspeed from the deck of the yacht Algonquin on December 16, 1907, to the American Battleship fleet as it started on its wonderful trip around the world under the command of Admiral Evans, in the presence of fifty thousand cheering Americans.

This remarkable photograph of Mr. Roosevelt now hangs over the desk of Colonel E. M. Knox in the Knox Building, Fifth Avenue and 40th Street, New York.

An exact reproduction would appear but for the wish expressed by the ex-President that his picture be kept out of advertisements. Colonel Roosevelt always had the best of everything.

WIFE BEATING STORY FARE

To be a successful faker of news stories one must at least visit the police station and get some of the details of any alleged murder, suicide or wife-beating episode. The morning paper of today comes out with a story of a horrible assault by a man on his wife when she was in a cot-dition that should inspire him to the every way which comfort her. According to Deputy Sheriff Rowe, who was this morning seen about the matter, no such affair had been reported to the police department. The deputy states that there is no truth in the report printed in the morning paper, and that the woman who is said to have been knocked down by her husband, tripped and fell by accident.
